First Chair + First Ottoman

The First Chair combines the best in ergonomic science and the finest materials to create a truly first-class seating experience. The First Chair embodies unparalleled comfort, allowing you to seamlessly shift from upright to reclined positions simply by changing your posture. Without mechanical levers or knobs, this chair caters to your natural sitting habits by utilizing a unique design in the joint connecting the back and the seat that provides flexible lumbar support from a variety of angles. Made with high-quality leather and real wood, the First Chair comes with a wide range of customization in terms of size and colors that will suit your taste. The First Chair Ottoman complements the First Chair.
